MY ONE AND ONLY, starring Renée Zellweger, Kevin Bacon, Chris Noth, Eric McCormack and Logan Lerman.
Rated M – infrequent course language

From director Richard Loncraine (My House In Umbria), this breezy journey, set in the 1950s, follows the refined and enchanting Ann Deveraux (Renée Zellweger), who packs up her life, including two teenage sons, buys a Cadillac convertible and embarks on a cross-country trip to get away from philandering society bandleader Dan (Kevin Bacon). Ann's goal is to find herself a new husband.

Yet what this unconventional family discovers is something that is altogether more wonderful.

"Sparkling and witty... Zellweger's performance is superb. Aimed directly at older audiences who remember when movies effortlessly mixed hilarity, family drama and sentiment without blinking an eye, My One and Only is that rare kind of comedy that doesn't come around very often anymore. Loaded with laughs, heart and wonderful performances, this '50s set charmer about a flamboyant mother and two sons is first class entertainment."
